

FACT SHEET

Student exchange at Perorsaanermik
Ilinniarfik/Socialpædagogisk Seminarium

● About Us

Perorsaanermik Ilinniarfik / Socialpædagogisk Seminarium (SPS) is a vocational education institution located in Ilulissat, Greenland. We offer practice-oriented programmes within social care and pedagogy, including Social Pedagogy BA-level – in a unique Arctic cultural and educational environment.

Find more information on our website: www.pi.sps.gl

● Available programme for incoming students

SPU – SOCIAL PEDAGOGY PROGRAMME

SPS can receive north2north exchange students only in the SPU programme, as it is the only programme taught in Danish. Students must be proficient in Danish to participate in class.

● Language

- Teaching language: Greenlandic and Danish
- No courses offered in English
- Danish proficiency required

● Academic calendar

- Autumn semester: August – December
- Spring Semester: January – June

● Housing

- Limited student housing in Ilulissat
- Support provided in finding accommodation
- Rent varies based on availability
- Students should expect higher expenses for food, clothing and daily necessities

● Why study with Us?

- Unique Arctic learning environment
- Strong ties to local social institutions
- Supportive learning community
- Experience Greenlandic culture and everyday life

North2north contact

Ane Sofie Knudsen

Email: ane@pi.sps.gl

Phone: +299 38 35 54

